You have the right to obtain from the Data Controller the erasure (Right to be Forgotten), limitation, updating, rectification, portability, opposition to the processing of personal data concerning you, as well as being able to exercise in general all rights outlined in Articles 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21 and 22 of the GDPR.

EU Regulation 2016/679: Articles 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21 and 22 - Rights of the Data Subject

1. The Data Subject is entitled to receive confirmation as to whether or not personal data concerning them exists, even if the data has not yet been recorded, and to have the data communicated in intelligible form, as well as to lodge a complaint with the Supervisory Authority.

2. The Data Subject has the right to know:

- a. The origin of the personal data;
- b. The purposes and methods of processing;
- c. The logic applied in the event of processing carried out with the aid of electronic instruments;
- d. The identifying details of the Data Controller, the Data Processors and the designated representative in accordance with Article 5(2);
- e. The subjects or categories of subjects to whom the personal data may be communicated or who can learn about such as appointed representative in the territory of the State, of Data Processors or Agents.

3. The Data Subject has the right to obtain:

- a. The updating, rectification or, where relevant, integration of the data;
- b. The erasure, transformation into anonymous form or blocking of data that has been processed unlawfully, including data whose retention is unnecessary for the purposes for which it has been collected or subsequently processed;
- c. Formal notification that the operations referred to in letters a) and b) have been brought to the attention, also regarding their content, of those to whom the data has been communicated or disseminated, except in the case where such fulfilment proves impossible or involves a use of means manifestly disproportionate to the protected right;
- d. The portability of the data.

4. The Data Subject has the right to oppose, in whole or in part:

- a. For legitimate reasons, the processing of personal data concerning them, even if pertinent to the purpose of the collection;
- b. The processing of personal data concerning them for the purpose of sending advertising or direct sales material or for carrying out market research or commercial communication.
